

Rock the Talk™

LCCDS Speakers Club 2022

Rock the Talkers learn how to:

- Write a great speech
- Manage butterflies
- Deliver with confidence
- Understand body language
- Involve the audience

Classes are interactive and fast-paced and will prepare participants for speaking competitions this school year.

Try it Out?

Afraid that speaking club might be boring, painful and no fun at all!? Sit in on a class before signing up to try it out! For more information contact Fiona Potter at 727-773-6599, or fiona@fionapotter.com.

Classes are open to Grades 4 and 5. The program is delivered weekly and will be offered on TUESDAYS from 3:15-4:15 in the LCCDS Life Center. Registration will be first-come-first served.

FIONA POTTER, your instructor and program founder, is a member of the National Speakers Association (NSA), a certified professional facilitator (CPF) and has a masters degree in business administration (MBA). Fiona launched LCC's public speaking program in 2008 (with LCC students winning City and County-wide and State speaking competitions). One of her students went to the World Optimist Finals this year! Fiona has delivered a TEDx on "Finding Your Voice in a Digital World" and has written a book on public speaking called Rock the Talk.

Classes starts TUESDAY, August 23rd**
